Privacy Policy - NovaConnect Social

1. Information we collect

We collect your name, contacts, health information you share in groups, biometric face templates from photos, and your precise location history. We may also receive data about you from advertisers and data brokers.

2. How we share information

NovaConnect may sell or share your personal information with third parties, advertisers, and our corporate affiliates for marketing and profiling purposes. We do not ask for separate consent before doing so.

3. Retention and transfers

We keep personal data indefinitely, even after you delete your account. Your data may be transferred to any country in which we or our partners operate, without additional safeguards.

4. Security incidents

We are not obliged to notify users or authorities of a data breach, and we accept no responsibility for losses arising from security incidents.

5. Changes and disputes

We may change this policy at any time without notice. By using the service you irrevocably waive your right to join a class action and agree to binding individual arbitration.
